

Help with working if you have a disability

HAVING A DISABILITY doesn't mean you don't have a job. Everyone's situation and disability is different, but there are plenty of people who can help make sure you get all the opportunities available to find suitable work.

The organisations below offer help with employment to people with all sorts of different disabilities. Whether it's training in new skills, or just someone to talk things through with, these people could help you make your first steps into the work you want or help you move to a new role you are seeking.

There may be other services like these available that are not listed here. You may find more information on one of our other information sheets, or by contacting Upper Hutt CAB (ph 528 9040).
